

Ali Mango Award for Distinguish Researcher

Saif Aldeen Saleh AlRyalat

During his study at The School of Medicine-The University of Jordan in the last few years, Dr. Saif Aldeen AlRyalat has published more than 30 medical papers, including eight impactful, first-author, medical papers, in some of the highest-ranked international medical journals. In his publications, Dr. AlRyalat focused on the importance of investing universally Open-Access biomedical data for improving medical research and accordingly, patient's care in Jordan. He also created new innovative methods to harness the benefits of open data in biomedical research.